

New York Docks Struck Again

NOTES FROM A CITY EDITOR'S DAYBOOK—John Stuart, chairman of the board of Quaker Oats Co., and former chairman of the Illinois committee for the Hoover report, has brought into the game of politics some new rules.

He presents a "yardstick" by which he feels, all voters should measure the candidates on election day. They're worth reading. Here they are:

1. Grants-in-aid by the Federal government to the States have risen from $900 million in fiscal 1946 to approximately $2.4 billion in fiscal 1954. * * * Will the candidate fight every measure which expands the shameful business of having the Federal government put the bite on local taxpayers, only to return to them their hard-earned tax dollars in so-called grants-in-aid, less a substantial percentage deducted for the Federal bureaucracy's handling charge?

2. According to the Postmaster General, as of July 1953 "... the Post Office Department is now running in the red at the rate of $2 million every working day of the year. ... From 1933-53 the Canadian postal operations have shown a surplus in all but two years, while the U. S. Post Office has had a deficit during the same period except for the war years 1943-44-45. * * * Will the candidate vote for economies in postal operations and an increase in postage rates sufficient to put the Post Office on a self-supporting basis?"

3. Forty states generally require a Constitutional amendment or a vote of the people to authorize debt beyond certain specified limits, except for repelling invasion. The average per capita debt for all of these states is less than $50. In the 8 states where there are either no Constitutional restrictions, or minor ones, the average per capita debt is $77.18; meanwhile the Federal government, where the debt limit is controlled only by a current Act of Congress, has piled up a crushing per capita debt of over $1700. * * * Will the candidate go on record as unalterably opposed to the increase of our already astronomical national debt, except for the purpose of repelling invasion?

4. The Federal government operates over 100 business-type activities. It is the largest insurer, the largest lender, the largest ship owner, the largest warehouse operator, the largest grain owner, etc., etc. * * * Will the candidate support legislation to prevent the government from competing with private business?

5. As of June 30, 1953, the Federal government's "credit" programs will have outstanding approximately $34.2 billion in loans, loan guarantees, etc., on everything from peanuts to pickle factories. * * * Will the candidate support legislation to get Uncle Sam out of this over-generous loan business?

6. Private business has, along with almost everyone else, had its fingers in the public pie. The major types of current Federal expenditures benefiting private business are: the postal deficit; maritime operating subsidies, navigation and other aids, various aids to air

Seek Woman for DeKalb Shooting Former Pawpaw Housekeeper Wanted for Gunning of Mate

SYCAMORE—(Special)—Illinois and Iowa authorities today continued a search for a Pawpaw housekeeper who shot her husband four times Saturday, and then disappeared.

Mrs. Anna C. Anderson, 34, and her husband, Howard W. Anderson, 35, who farms about 12 miles west of Sycamore were married in June this year, and separated a few days later. Mrs. Anderson had worked as a housekeeper near Pawpaw for about two weeks before the shooting.

Two of Anderson's neighbors, LaVerne Clegg and Ernest Jordal, were eyewitnesses to the shooting. They said Anderson had asked them to accompany him home Saturday, because his wife was to take her belongings from his home, and he was afraid of her.

They said they were with Anderson in a farm truck at the Anderson home when Mrs. Anderson drove into the yard. They said the couple had a short argument, after which Mrs. Anderson drew a .22 caliber pistol and shot Anderson in the side.

The neighbors jumped from truck and ran, but Anderson dropped to the floor of the truck cab. Mrs. Anderson then leaned through the window and fired four more bullets at her husband.

Sheriff Francis J. Sullivan said four of the bullets hit Anderson, inflicting five wounds in his shoulder, chest, arm, hand and leg. He is reported to be recovering in a DeKalb hospital.

Mrs. Anderson drove away quickly after the shooting. She went to the Whitaker home and grabbed her two children and left. Iowa authorities are watching.

Kaiser Will Build Cars, Trucks in Argentine Plant

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina—Henry J. Kaiser signed a contract early today to manufacture cars, trucks and jeeps in Argentina in partnership with President Juan D. Peron's government.

The U. S. industrialist will invest 10 million dollars worth of machinery, representing about one-third of the capital in the new company. He will manage the manufacturing for the new company, to be owned by himself, the Argentine government and Argentine private investors.

The agreement culminated two months of negotiations. For Kaiser, the deal permits him to manufacture automotive equipment in Argentina—starved for cars and trucks—and with machinery he owns in the United States. This machinery is useless to him there, where the auto mar-

Washington School Strikes Over Race Issue Growing

Situation Easing in Baltimore

NAACP Attorney Asks Brownell for Federal Backing

By The Associated Press—Demonstrations against racial integration in the public schools spread in Washington today but the situation eased in neighboring Baltimore, scene of noisy disorders for the past several days.

Strikes and picketing were reported at eight Washington schools including Anacostia and McKinley high schools where youngsters maintained a defiant attitude today despite pleas from school officials and police patrols on duty. The demonstrations started there Monday.

A new demonstration was staged this morning at all-white Eastern High School with several hundred pupils taking part. Strike action was reported at five junior high schools.

Attendance Increases—At Baltimore, school attendance increased with the situation apparently returning to normal after student strikes, picketing and mass protests over the integration of the races in schools.

In New York, Thurgood Marshall, special counsel of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, asked Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr. to make it clear that "the full force of the federal government" stands behind efforts to desegregate the schools.

Marshall said demonstrations over desegregation at Milford, Del., Baltimore and Washington were to threaten local school officials and prevent Negro children from "exercising their constitutionally guaranteed rights to attend desegregated schools."

"Unlawful Action"—"This unlawful action has come about solely by reason of the provocation of an organization known as the National Assn. for the Advancement of White People," Marshall said in a telegram to Brownell Monday night.

In Washington, a group of white students arranged to meet with Principal Richard E. Bish of the McKinley school and discuss problems arising from the Supreme Court ruling outlawing segregation in the public schools.

The students were among 150 who walked out at McKinley Monday.

Italy, Slavs Settle Tense Trieste Issue

ROME—Italy and Yugoslavia formally settled their bitter nine-year dispute over the Trieste territory today and agreed on its division between them.

The division virtually coincides with the occupation boundaries established in 1945, with Italy getting the key Adriatic port of Trieste and Yugoslavia retaining the zone she has occupied since World War II.

Closes Defense Gap—The settlement, signed by the two countries' ambassadors in London today and announced simultaneously in Rome and Belgrade, is expected to make possible the closing of the last gap in the Western defense line across south-eastern Europe. Although both Italy and Yugoslavia are strongly anti-Russian, they had refused to cooperate militarily in the past because of their rivalry over Trieste.

The next step may be inclusion of Italy in the Balkan anti-aggression alliance Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey signed in August.

The agreement was a triumph for U. S. British diplomacy, which prodded the two Adriatic sea neighbors through long negotiations in London, Washington, New York, Rome and Belgrade.

Marilyn-Joe Divorce To Be 'Clean Break'

HOLLYWOOD—Today's the day that Marilyn Monroe asks waivers on Joe DiMaggio, the former Yankee slugger.

The busy blonde is slated to file suit for divorce. Her attorney, Jerry Giesler, said Monday that a conflict of careers caused the rift in the ninth-month marriage.

This was a romance that Hollywood never expected to get to matrimony's first base so little did the two have in common.

Before she married Joe, Marilyn thought a shortstop was something that cross-country bus passengers did. DiMaggio hadn't seen a movie since "Pride of the Yankees," the Lou Gehrig story. He couldn't care less about Hollywood's dizzy whirl.

Giesler told newsmen as he left the DiMaggios' English farmhouse in Beverly Hills Monday:

"The charges will be innocuous—the usual mental cruelty." The lawyer said there would be no alimony and no community property in the settlement. He said both parties remain friendly.

Giesler denied reports that recent sidewalk photos of Marilyn's skirt billowing over her head during movie-making in New York had anything to do with the split.

Nine Apply As Volunteer Firemen Here

Fire Chief Kayser said today he has received nine applications from men desiring to be volunteer firemen. The openings were announced following the creation of a volunteer squad by the City Council a week ago.

Kayser said he expects the 12 maximum vacancies will be filled by the end of this week and urges anyone interested in joining the volunteer force to contact him immediately.

Kayser said he is planning to hold the first meeting sometime next week and said it would be an orientation and "get acquainted" affair.

He said he expects to hold meetings about twice a month at first to explain the basic principles and the mechanics of fire fighting but will taper off to one meeting a month after the men learn the basic procedures.

The firemen answered one call at 5:25 p. m. Monday but reported no fire. Kayser said a car belonging to Dixon Motors was reported on fire at the corner of Seventh Street and Galena Avenue but there was only smoke and no blaze.

Indict Man For Rochelle Gas Slayings

Kenneth Collins Faces Two First Degree Counts

OREGON—(Special)—The Ogle county grand jury Monday returned two indictments charging Kenneth Collins, 32, Rochelle, with first degree murder in the deaths of his common-law wife and their 11-month-old son.

Tressie Westbrook, 26 and Kenneth Collins, Jr., were found dead in a cabin in Rochelle, Sept. 14. Carbon monoxide poisoning from gas escaping from a gas jet was given as the cause of death.

Collins has admitted the slaying, and is being held in Ogle County jail without bond.

The grand jury also indicted nine other persons.

Two Lanark youths, William Hoover, 20, and Larry Rife, 18, were charged with burglary and larceny. Bond for each was set at $3,000. They are accused of taking liquor and cash during a break-in at the El Rancho Club, Adelino.

They also face indictments in Carroll County for the armed robbery of Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Shore, Shannon, Aug. 30.

Robert Burright, Rochelle, was indicted for burglary and larceny of Rochelle Country Club and a Rochelle service station. Bond is $3,000 on each charge.

John Bird, Rochelle, was charged with assault with intent to commit mayhem and aggravated assault. He was allegedly involved in a stabbing on Aug. 28.

Otto Stover, Haldane, was indicted for larceny in connection with thefts from several farms.

William Hall and William Swann, both of Rockford, were indicted for burglary and larceny. The case involved theft of chickens from the farm of Andrew Buhs, Mt. Morris on May 2. The pair was picked up by State Police for a traffic violation and the chickens were discovered in their car and traced to Buhs farm. Bond was set at $1,000 each.

Frank Leisson, Adelino, was indicted for the rape and assault to commit rape on his former wife Edith, on July 29. Bond was set at $3,000.

Gifford Duncan was indicted for operating a confidence game in the sale of a steel gate to Elmer Borneman, Mt. Morris. Duncan allegedly accepted Borneman's check for $120 for the gate and failed to deliver it. Bond was set at $3,000.

SKUNK LEAVES CHURCH—Possibly because he didn't have a cent for the collection, this skunk scuttled past the front door of St. Chrysostom's Episcopal Church at Quincy, Mass., while Sunday services were under way without going inside. Skunk was discovered trapped in window well of church and climbed out on a plank placed in position by police without losing his temper. Nobody went out front door until coast was clear. Mick Denied Motion for Venue Change

Wayne Mick, Dixon, today was denied a change of venue in a defense of a charge that he sold fireworks illegally.

County Judge Grover Gehant denied the motion this morning. Mick's counsel had cited a 90-year-old court decision in the plea for the venue change but Judge Gehant set it aside claiming that subsequent statutory changes had altered the situation.

Judge Gehant set the jury trial for Nov. 16. Mick in seeking the change of venue said that the people of Lee county are prejudiced against him.

Mick was arrested early last summer for offering fireworks for sale, pleaded guilty and paid a $100 fine. Shortly after the first arrest, he was again arrested for selling fireworks.

After hearing Judge Gehant deny the change of venue request, Mick pleaded not guilty to the second arrest this morning and requested a jury trial.

Arson Suspect Declared Mentally Ill, Committed

A jury of eight women and four men found Mrs. Marie L. Emmert, Dixon, mentally ill after only 10 minutes deliberation Monday afternoon in Lee County Circuit Court.

Mrs. Emmert, who was indicted by the Grand Jury Sept. 20 for arson, appeared this morning before Circuit Judge Robert Bracken and was formally turned over to the Illinois State Welfare Commission. The Commission committed her to Elgin State Hospital.

Two long-time Dixon physicians testified and another physician's statement was read to the jury. In their opinion, Mrs. Emmert was incapable of making decisions and all agreed she was mentally ill.

Dr. J. M. Lund, Dr. Samuel Adler, and Dr. J. B. Werren stated that they had all treated Mrs. Emmert within the last two years and they believed, she is about the same now as she was when she was committed to the East Moline State Hospital in May.

The sanity hearing was a result of a motion by State Atty. James Bales Monday morning suggesting that a jury be selected and return a verdict whether or not Mrs. Emmert is now mentally ill.

At the time of her commitment in May, the doctors stated that she was in need of mental treatment and was suffering from progressive schizophrenia with paranoid symptoms due to extreme nervous tension.

Gangsterism Charge Seen As Reason

Passengers Unload Own Baggage From Big Ocean Liners

NEW YORK (AP)—A strike by longshoremen in a wage dispute today tied up the world's largest and busiest port for the second time in six months.

Tugboats still were operating and big liners were able to dock, but there was nobody to unload the cargoes.

There was no immediate prospect of a settlement between the International Longshoremen's Assn. (ILA) and the New York Shipping Assn., representing steamship lines and stevedoring firms.

Baltimore and other East Coast ports laid plans to handle cargoes expected to be diverted from New York as they were during a 29-day walkout last March and April.

Big Liners Dock—The American Export liner Independence, first large ship to arrive since the strike started at midnight Monday, berthed without difficulty at a Hudson River pier. Non-longshore employees of the company handled the lines and the passengers' luggage.

The Cunard liner Queen Mary docked later in a similar manner. Police patrolled the waterfront. All 159 piers along the port's 350-mile waterfront except military docks in Brooklyn and Staten Island appeared to be hit by the strike.

Strikers picketed all piers at which ships were berthed, with the exception of military piers exempted from the strike.

The Hudson River piers are usually manned by the I.L.A.'s big Local 824. This local was the first to report a unanimous vote Monday night in favor of a strike, rejecting an employers' contract offer.

Report of a similar vote quickly followed from Anthony (Tough Tony) Anastasia, boss of Brooklyn locals with 2,500 dock worker members. Other locals throughout the huge port quickly fell in line and shortly before midnight I.L.A. President William V. Bradley announced that 19 locals had followed the union's wage scale committee recommendation without a single dissenting vote.

Patrick J. Connolly, executive vice president of the I.L.A., linked the strike to recent charges made against the union by Samuel M. Lane, executive director of the Waterfront Commission of New York Harbor.

Lane last Saturday stated that I.L.A. was still gangster-controlled and had launched a drive to keep longshoremen who are not members of the I.L.A. from working. He said the commission was taking drastic action to prevent a return of "gangster-directed discrimination" in hiring dock hands.

I.L.A. officials denied Lane's charges the next day.

Plucky Boy Awaits Fourth Artificial Limb

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. — Lonnie Lynn Williams is a little fellow you'd give an arm to help. That's what the plucky two-year-old from Lexington, Tenn., is waiting for today at the Mary Free Bed Childrens Hospital and Orthopedic Center — an artificial arm.

It is the second major trip to the Grand Rapids center for Lonnie, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Williams who was born without arms or legs.

The people of Lexington joined forces with medical science to help Lonnie fight his difficulties. The fund in his name brought him to the center last May.

Lonnie was fitted with the first pair of jointed artificial legs intended for a child under four years. By June 21 he had been fitted with an artificial arm. It was also the first attempt for a child under four.

Spokesmen said his ready acceptance and use of the limbs were extremely encouraging but decided against fitting the second arm at that time fearing it would be "too much for a child that age to manage."

But hospital directors said he has made wonderful adjustments and expected developments Wednesday concerning the second artificial arm.

Harry Kalsted and daughter, Judy, spent the weekend at the El Combe and Esther Kalsted homes.

Farm Topics Scheduled at Safety Meet

URBANA — Safety lessons that will help prevent accidents and save lives on the farm will be abundant at the farm sessions of the National Safety Congress in Chicago, Oct. 18-22.

E. I. Pilchard, vice president of the Illinois Rural Safety Council, reports that at least 12,000 persons are expected to hear the more than 600 participants discuss all aspects of accident prevention at the 200 sessions. The Congress, which is the annual convention of the National Safety Council, will offer sessions in each of its five divisions.

The farm program will include sessions for adults and a special program for farm youth. At the joint session on Tuesday morning, Oct. 19, the subject will be the importance of safety to the farm family, to industry, to agriculture and to the farmer. In the afternoon, while farm youths set the stage for their special program, the adults will hear panel discussions on electric fence problems and safe rural wiring.

On Wednesday morning the farm session will feature a panel of experts on how to accomplish the farm safety job, while the afternoon program will be devoted to farm machinery safety.

"Progress Ahead" is the theme of the combined youth and adult session on Thursday morning. Suggestions toward realizing a safer agriculture will come from representatives of youth, farmers, agricultural colleges, farm organizations, and agricultural industry.

A special session on farm fire prevention will be held on Thursday afternoon.

Start Feeding Next Year's Hog Crop

URBANA—Gilts selected for next year's brood sows should gain about a pound and a half a day, says a University of Illinois livestock specialist.

G. R. Carlisle, extension livestockman in the College of Agriculture, suggests that you feed a growing ration than a fattening ration after your gilts weigh 150 to 200 pounds. You'll insure yourself of a better pig crop next spring if you do.

Either hand-feed or self-feed the growing ration, Carlisle says. A good hand-fed ration would be made up of about 3/4 pound of a 40 per cent protein supplement plus 4 1/2 to 5 pounds of grain for each gilt daily. Or you can feed 5 to 5 1/2 pounds of a 13 to 14 per cent complete ration.

If you'd rather self-feed the

Spray Controls Boxelder Bugs

URBANA—Spray Lindane or dieldrin on the sides and foundation of your house this fall to control box-elder bugs if you are troubled with them.

H. B. Petty, extension entomologist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, also suggests that you spray a three-foot strip on the ground beside the house where the bugs are clustering.

Use half a pint of 20 per cent lindane concentrate in 2 1/2 gallons of water to make a 5 per cent spray. Petty recommends. Apply to the point of run-off. Or you can mix one-fourth pint of dieldrin in 2 gallons of water to make a .25 percent spray that will give good control. You may have to repeat the spray every week or so.

The entomologist says that box-elder bugs live mostly on box-elder trees, where they feed on seeds. Getting rid of box-elder trees will help to control the bugs. But you can also spray the trunks and the ground around the trunks of these trees in the fall if the bugs are present. They migrate to buildings for protection when cold weather comes.

Box-elder bugs do not eat either human food or cloth, Petty says. Their main food is box-elder seeds. If they get into your house, however, they will spot curtains and wallpaper. You can pick up the bugs that get into your house with a vacuum cleaner. Or in severe cases inside your house you can use pyrethrin sprays for quick kill.

You'll be able to see in operation a new mechanical tree grinder during the Logging, Sawmilling and Forestry Show Oct. 7 and 8 at the John Hauberg farm north of Port Byron in Rock Island county.

The silo, the story relates, "Dry- ing is eliminated, thereby reducing operation cost substantially."

The article goes on to list other ideas from Midwest corn growers, which cut corn-picking time and help farmers harvest higher-quality grain.

New Survey Gives Clues About Midwest Fall Pigs

By L. H. SIMERL
College of Agriculture
University of Illinois

A recent government survey gives some new facts about the size of the fall pig crop—and some clues as to the probable number of 1955 spring pigs. But the survey leaves plenty of unanswered questions to puzzle farmers and hog buyers.

The new survey shows that farmers in six leading hog-producing states are having about 14 per cent more sows farrow this fall (June-November) than last. The same farmers plan to have 11 per cent more winter pigs (December-February) than they had last winter.

The six states included in the survey—Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Kansas—have in recent year produced about half of the total U. S. fall pig crop.

The 14 per cent increase in sows farrowing this fall in these states compares with an expected increase of 10 per cent reported three months earlier for the U. S. as a whole. The increase in pigs saved may be a little different from the number of sows farrowing, depending on the number of pigs saved per sow. The survey shows that fall pigs are coming a little, but not much, earlier than they did last year.

Iowa farmers seem to be going "hog wild." They will have about a million sows farrowing fall pigs—10 per cent more than last year and 27 per cent more than average. Total fall pigs saved in Iowa will probably be a record high.

The survey also disclosed some interesting and important information about sows to farrow in December-February (first half of spring pig crop season). Farmers in these six states expect to have 11 per cent more sows farrowing early spring (or winter) pigs than they had this past year. However, total 1955 spring farrowings will probably not show such a large increase.

Most of the six states in the survey escaped the worst of the drought, so they have plenty of feed and water. Minnesota shows the greatest prospective increase in winter farrowings—45 per cent. These three, most of which escaped the drought, show the following prospective increases: Wisconsin, 17 per cent; Iowa, 12 per cent, and Indiana, 9 per cent.

Illinois, which has a bumper corn crop in the north, but a complete failure in many southern counties, shows no increase in sows to farrow in December-February. Kansas farmers, hard hit by drought, say they will cut winter farrowings by 13 per cent.

Missouri and several other important hog states in the severe drought area were not included in the survey.

There are two reasons for thinking that the total number of spring pigs may not increase so much as this survey suggests:

First, it seems likely that decreases in winter and spring farrowing in the drought areas will offset a substantial part of the planned increase elsewhere.

Second, neither of the two big months of spring farrowing—March and April—were covered in the survey. Last year the percentage increase in total spring pigs (December-May) was much less than the increase in the first three months.

Wood choppers and sawyers are invited to compete for cash awards in contests planned for the Logging, Sawmilling and Forestry Show on the John Hauberg farm north of Port Byron on Oct. 7 and 8.

Social Security Amendments Affect Many Farm Workers

The new amendments to the Social Security Act which President Eisenhower has signed into law are of particular importance to both farm operators and farm workers in Lee and Ogle counties, Gerald W. Spencer, manager of the District Social Security office in Rockford said today.

The new law extends social security protection to almost all farm families after this year. Nationwide, about 13,600,000 self-employed farm operators will be covered for the first time in much the same way as other self-employed persons already under the program. Approximately 2,100,000 more hired farm workers will start building old-age and survivors insurance protection for themselves and their families on Jan. 1, 1955.

Two Crop Years

This means that by the time they have worked through two more crop years, elderly farm people may be insured, so that they can receive monthly social security checks after age 65. A farmer's family will be protected, too, so that if he should die, at any age, the widow and young children would receive monthly payments. For a retired farmer and his wife, the payments will be from $45 to almost $163 a month, depending upon his earnings, while the family of an insured worker who dies will receive from $45 to $200 a month.

The amended law does away with the complicated "regularly employed" test whereby a worker had to be continuously employed by a farm operator before his work started to count toward social security. Also eliminated is the provision that he must then be employed by the same farm operator on a full-time basis for at least 60 days during the following quarter. The amended law replaces this test with the requirement that, beginning Jan. 1, 1955, an agricultural employee will be covered by social security in any calendar year in which he is paid as much as $100 in cash by one farm employer.

Some Not Covered

While this amendment to the Social Security Act will bring coverage to many more farm workers, the new law does not cover the most intermittent or short-time workers, and does not impose on the farm employer the burden of reporting small amounts of wages.

However, the farm operator who employs farm help will have an obligation to report the employee's covered wages and remit the social security tax (two per cent deducted from the worker's cash wages; two per cent contributed by the farm operator). The farmer will send the report and the taxes for his employee to the District Director of Internal Revenue.

Spencer pointed out that the farm operator will earn social security credits in the same way as all other self-employed people who are under the program, with one notable exception. For farm operators whose gross income is less than $1,800 in a year, there is a special simplified reporting procedure. The farm operator will report his income for social security and pay his first social security self-employment tax on his 1955 earnings. The social security tax is a three per cent tax which is due, with the social security income report, at the same time the farmer pays his income tax. This date is April 15, 1955.

Farm operators and workers who have never been in employment or self-employment covered by social security and have never had a social security account card, or have lost their card, should get in touch with the nearest Social Security District Office. Spencer said: The social security office in Rockford is in Room 207, P. O. Bldg. If it is not convenient for a farmer or farm worker to visit that office, he can get an application blank at the post office and mail it to the above address.

Expect Lowering Of Hog Prices

There may be some lowering of hog prices in 1955 with the final figure near $18 or $20, concluded Bayard Scott, Vinton, Iowa, farmer, after recent visits with hog raisers and experts in three states. Scott reports his own opinions and those of the men he visited in the September issue of Successful Farming magazine. One of the experts predicted there will be an eight to 10 per cent increase in the number of hogs both this year and next.

Another farmer in Illinois said that he felt corn prices would be cheaper this year, and that he could take a lower price for his hogs and still have a favorable corn-hog margin.

MILLEDGEVILLE — ILLINOIS

By WESTBROOK PEGLER
(Copyright, 1954, Kink Features Syndicate, Inc.)

NEW YORK—George Sylvester Viereck, a propagandist, poet and scholar, was hounded and spat upon, ruined financially and sent to prison for trying to keep the United States out of two world wars.

Thirty pro-Americans were baited through a frightful ordeal of political persecution by Roosevelt's Department of Justice in the infamous so-called mass sedition case. Some of them were destitute in Washington after they had been transported way across the continent for trial. Some were bigoted in their opinions. However, so were their oppressors and they still are. None of them was guilty of any crime as the Department of Justice sullenly admitted in abandoning the indictments at long last.

Senator Joe McCarthy is badgered, smeared with infamous insinuations and, finally insulted by a political verdict of provisional censure. His crime was to insist that the army name the individual who knowingly promoted and honorably discharged a dentist who took the Fifth Amendment. The vital fact is that the Army, and President Eisenhower at the top of the chain of command, refused to tell the American people the name of this individual. Far from punishing the guilty person, Ike and the Army and the Senate committee have tried to punish McCarthy. His physical ordeal in his known condition of complicated illness has amounted to planned torture. His unseen enemies are trying to do him to death by exhaustion or to make him quit. They are rich, organized and ruthless.

Many arrogant, reckless units of a daily press which is fast forfeiting its freedom through betrayal of its obligation, have constantly, instinctively cried out "fear" engendered by "smear" and "slander." But, how odd it is that traitors, protectors of traitors and persons who endorse treason to students in the schools are the only clients of this piercing solitude by this segment of the press. They abhor "conformity" under compulsion. But, they violently loathe and actively harass pro-Americans. They wait over traitors who are caught in the act of guilty association, connivance and conspiracy. But they ignore a systematic trial by ordeal which goes on every day in the United States courts on the Eastern seaboard in a baiting process called examination before trial.

A few lawyers have had the honor and courage to attack this flagrant persecution, conducted with the sneering cooperation of evil heeleders of the machine who have been promoted to the bench to carry on this brain-washing process. It is no secret, although it gets little publicity. All newspapers know all about it. All lawyers know about it and some lawyers admit that it is a blot on the jurisprudence but a good way of making easy money and often an easy way of forcing a litigant to abandon his rights and quit to terminate the insults and violations of decent privacy. McCarthy's remarks to General Swicker were murmurs of love by comparison with the degrading scurrility which is daily routine in this phase of the federal jurisprudence.

The mere fact that some disreputable agent of the machine has filed a paper with the clerk of the U. S. Court, is enough to expose to the blackguard press of that machine the most intimate affairs of the other party.

The same violence has occurred often in Congressional hearings without the slightest notice from the alarmists against "the atmosphere of fear" and "conformity." They were indifferent when Dr. Edward A. Rumely was pilloried, badgered and finally sentenced to prison for refusal to tell a low crook named Buchanan, chairman of a House Committee on "lobbying," what persons bought how many copies of John Flynn's great political warning against Communism, "The Road Ahead." The Supreme Court, in an unwonted seizure of decency, saved him.

Buchanan was a swindler, indicted three times for stealing money from customers in used-car deals. He was the tool of a number of private gestapos with headquarters in New York but with a network extending all over the country and abroad. These newspapers never published a syllable of the evil, ominous truth. One went so far as to ballyhoo a book about the Buchanan committee which failed to disclose what a crook Buchanan was or to show the known motivation of the so-called inquiry.

When I was called before a Subcommittee of the House Labor Committee and produced abundant proof that unions were persecuting individual members, the same press took no notice of the fact that the chairman was a lawyer who had cleaned up $80,000 in just one fee in a suit against the Carpenters' union. I refused to expose individual union workers to punishment at the hands of eleven union bosses who were members of Congress and happened to stroll into the hearing to pick up information on the "squealers." Therefore I had failed to prove up. The chairman left Congress after one term and has resumed his practice of suing unions.

If anyone has reason to go in "fear" it is the pro-American fighter for the Constitution and against corrupt federal judges and the compromise with treason which is implicit in the editorial voice of most of the American press. Box office venality is the cause of this ruinous development.

I had a talk recently with the wife of a fading giant who used to fight enormously against all such corruption. She said she was taking her husband out of his fights now, as often as she could. He was always losing. She wanted to be on the winning side for a change.

Molly Pitcher took the place of her wounded husband in the battle of Monmouth during the Revolutionary War.

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — Un-Covering Hollywood: Olivia de Havilland's permanent address from now on will be Paris, France, with trips to Hollywood for movie acting only. Husband-to-be, French magazine executive Pierre Galante, joins her in movietown in December when she completes "Not as a Stranger." They'll announce the wedding date then and return to Paris to make their home.

Just as I predicted after her marriage, Jean Peters is returning to the screen. She's in Atlanta, Ga., on location with "A Man Called Peter." She's co-starred with Richard Todd.

Big holdout in the clearances being sought by MGM is filming Lillian Roth's life story, "I'll Cry Tomorrow," is Judge Ben Schalleck, whose marriage to Lillian was highly publicized.

Jeff Donnell and Aldo Ray talked over the marriage-or-career question and Jeff definitely will go ahead with her emoting after she becomes Mrs. Ray. . . . Nora Haymes is downcast over her long fight with Errol Flynn on child-support payments. She's moving to New York with her two kiddies to try for a TV career.

A return to the MGM lot for Mario Lanza? The studio's loan of costumes from "The Great Caruso" to Mario for his CBS-TV bow in "Show of Stars" could be a straw in the breeze. . . . Hollywood welcomed Jack Poddell, new editor of Motion Picture magazine, at a jam-packed Ciro's cocktail party. His first issue out Oct. 4 proves he's on top of the news. One of the yarns: Debbie Reynolds discussing "The Petting Problem."

Anthony Quinn grinned it when asked if starring in five films in Italy changed him in any way: "No, not-a-too-mucha."

Art Linkletter's 17-year-old son, Jack, is about to emulate papa on the radio waves. He'll be a Teen Club record-spinner for CBS. He starts locally in mid-October before joining the network.

Eve Arden and Brooks West announced birth of their son with "This is No. 4 in our tax-exemption corps." . . . And Spike Jones has added a flea circus to his mad musical troupe for his winter tour. He says: "I'm starting from scratch on this new endeavor."

Roy Rogers broke all attendance records at the Canadian National Exhibition. Quote from an official there:

"If he ran for election tomorrow, he could be prime minister."

Human side of a champ note: Rocky Marciano mixed a chance to see himself on a kinescope of his Comedy Hour guesting. His explanation:

"It would make me nervous."

Grab a shovel and bury another legend about Irving Berlin now that you'll be humming his tunes from Paramount's new musical, "White Christmas." Berlin may have started out as a singing waiter, but he's never wanted to become a singing star.

To prove his point he tells this story:

"I thought I was only a possible singer until we made the movie version of 'This Is the Army' and I sang one of my first hits, 'Oh, How I Hate to Get Up in the Morning.'"

"When they played the recording back over a loudspeaker on the set I overheard an electrician tell a prop man:

"If the guy who wrote that song could hear Berlin singing it he'd turn over in his grave."

The Doctor Says:

Surgery Is Best Treatment For Bleeding Hemorrhoids

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

The condition known as piles or hemorrhoids has been discussed on numerous occasions previously but the problem is still with us and probably always will be. In any event numerous readers of this column keep asking questions on the subject, principally about cause and treatment.

It is not possible to give a very good explanation of the cause of piles. They consist of enlarged or dilated veins known as hemorrhoidal veins lying around the exit of the intestinal tract. It would seem that anything which increases the pressure of the blood passing through these veins would be likely eventually to weaken the walls of the veins so that they remain permanently enlarged.

CERTAINLY there are reasons to believe that long continued strain such as chronic constipation, childbirth, a severe cough, contribute to the development of piles. It is also possible that the sitting for hours at a time which so many occupations now demand has something to do with the development of hemorrhoids.

Once present what can one do, and is there anything better than surgery? It is true that sometimes the veins become temporarily greatly enlarged and then may return to normal or almost so. This happens quite often at childbirth, for example.

BUT IF THE PILES are permanent and are causing bleeding, itching or discomfort, all of which are common, the best treatment is usually surgery. This involves cutting out or trying the enlarged veins, or both. Injecting them with an irritating fluid which causes them to close up is sometimes used but this is not always possible.

When a person with hemorrhoids understands what has happened he will not be so likely to expect some new and miraculous form of treatment. But there is another thing, too, which everyone should realize.

THERE ARE a lot of these veins and no person with piles has them all enlarged. Consequently if the enlarged veins are cut out or injected it is possible that others will dilate and cause trouble later.

For this reason it is wise to try to identify and correct if possible such factors as constipation or coughing which may have had something to do with their development in the first place.

I am often asked also whether hemorrhoids increase the chances of developing cancer. They do not.

A. B. C. REPORTS—40 YEARS OF FACT-FINDING AND FACT-REPORTING

Miss McCleary Is Bride of Edwin L. Strauss October 2

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. McCleary, Polo, was the scene of a pretty fall wedding, Saturday afternoon, Oct. 2, when their daughter, Joan Ruth, became the bride of Edwin L. Strauss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Strauss, Polo.

The ceremony was held before a beautiful floral arrangement of large white chrysanthemums, Fuji mums and huckleberry, with burning tapers at either side which decorated the mantel that was banked by palms and ferns. The Rev. Leonard H. Lowe, pastor of the Polo Methodist Church, officiated. Mrs. Roy E. McCleary, Dixon, aunt of the bride, played the traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a graceful waltz-length gown of Chantilly lace and satin taffeta. The dress was of empire style with a billowing taffeta skirt, lace bodice, long lace sleeves tapering to points at each wrist and a portrait neckline that was adorned with clusters of seed pearls. The bride carried a cascade bouquet in which a white orchid was surrounded with sprays of stephanotis, white roses and ivy. Her silk illusion veil fell from a matching lace cloche that was trimmed with rhinestones and seed pearls.

Bride's Attendant

Mrs. Max Norris, matron of honor, wore a ballerina length gown of iridescent apricot taffeta fashioned in empire style with portrait neckline and short sleeves. She wore a matching headdress and mits and carried a bouquet of bronze mums, which was encircled with a lighter shade of pompons and ivy.

Elliott McCleary, Chicago, brother of the bride, served as best man. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McCleary donned a toast-crepe dress with darker brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Strauss, wore navy blue accessories with her lighter blue crepe dress. Their corsages were of pink gladiolus.

Reception

The reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The bridal table was decorated in pastel colors with a centerpiece of pink and white carnations flanked by silver candelabra. The three-tiered wedding cake, iced in white, was encircled by huckleberry and pink carnations, and was served by Mrs. Robert E. McCleary, Geneva, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs.

Deborah Circle

Deborah Circle of the Methodist WSCS held its first meeting of the season Sept. 30, in the home of Mrs. Earl Slagle Sr. Co-hostesses were: Mesdames George Walker, Paul Miller, Helen Moeller and Delbert Reed. The 1:30 o'clock luncheon was followed by a regular meeting with Mrs. Walker presiding. Plans for the coming year were discussed.

It was announced that Mrs. Fred Ball, membership chairman, is convalescing at her home with an ankle injury.

Mrs. Helen Moeller gave the devotions and used as her subject "Labors for the Lord", taken from the books of the Bible.

Mrs. F. G. Eno, gave a history of the women of the Bible, after whom the circles were named.

The October meeting will be in the home of Mrs. William Wolf, 323 East Boyd, instead of in the home of Mrs. L. W. Feik, as originally planned.

Donna Jean Craig Wears White as Fall Bride

POLO. The Polo Methodist church was the scene of an early autumn wedding, Saturday evening, Sept. 25, at seven-thirty o'clock, when vows were repeated by Miss Donna Jean Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Craig, Polo, and Robert W. Schirmer, son of Dennis Schirmer and the late Mrs. Schirmer, Lanark. Candelabra, potted ferns and baskets of yellow mums formed the background for the candlelight service.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Leonard Lowe. Miss Betty Reback played a group of nuptial selections before the ceremony and accompanied Mrs. Russell Poole as she sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length, white nylon net over taffeta gown styled with a fitted bodice. Embroidered lace graced the bodice and skirt and the neckline was of illusion. The bride's French nylon net fingertip veil was attached to a beaded seed pearl crown. She wore a pearl necklace with matching earrings and carried a white orchid on a white nurses testament.

Attendant From Iowa

Matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Riley, Waverly, Ia., wore an ice blue broadcloth silk frock with matching headpiece. Her ballerina length dress was designed with a bolero jacket. Blue and white baby mums were in her colonial bouquet and she wore rhinestone earrings and a rhinestone necklace.

James Boddiger, Polo, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Donald Schirmer, brother of the bridegroom, Lanark, and Robert Michael, also of Lanark.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Craig chose a navy blue silk crepe with matching accessories. Her corsage was pink rose buds.

Church Reception

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Donald Schirmer, Lanark, served the cake; Mrs. Donald Craig, Colorado Springs, Colo., poured punch; Miss Marilyn Cross, German Valley, served coffee and Miss Leola Schildt, Rockford, and Miss Joanne Spade, Freeport, took care of the guest book and gifts.

When the newlyweds left on a trip to Wisconsin, the bride was wearing a navy blue knit wool dress with navy accessories and her wedding orchid.

Mario Proves He's Still a 'Live' Singer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Mario Lanza in a private concert to calm the critics has shown all his old vocal power and promised that all future TV appearances will be live.

"I may even stick my finger down my throat during a couple of numbers to let the public know that there are no recordings," the tenor added Monday after singing arias from "I Pagliacci" and the inevitable "Be My Love" for assembled newsmen and women.

Why were two-year-old recordings dubbed in on his TV debut last Thursday? Because of all those medical tests, said Lanza, while he was taking off 40 pounds in six weeks.

"They dehydrated me," he said. "They lowered my blood sugar. And my doctor said he would not be responsible for how I would react."

Priest Pays Off Parking Tickets For the Faithful

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa (AP) — The Rev. J. T. Moriarty of St. Patrick's Church here paid off $42 in traffic parking tickets for his parishioners.

During services Sunday, he told all car owners whose cars were ticketed while they were attending services to bring the tickets to him. There were 42 of them at $1 each.

The cars were ticketed because they were parked on the wrong side of a street past the church on which parking is limited to one side only.

Mayor William Keenan said he will ask the City Council to strike out the limitation on the church street.

Operated by the Singer Sewing Machine Co., a subsidiary, the plant currently employs about 1,000 workers.

The plant is now engaged principally in making sewing machine cabinets.

Operations of the South Bend plant will be taken over by existing plants in Tümmann, Ark., and Pickens, S. C. However, no expansion of employment will be necessary at these plants, the company said.

Polio May Be 'Prosperity,' Doctors Told

BY FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

CHICAGO (AP) — Paralytic polio may be largely a "prosperity" disease, the American Academy of Pediatrics was told today.

Children and adults living in prosperous, uncrowded areas may be more likely to get it than those living in slums and other crowded regions, said Dr. David Bodian of the Johns Hopkins University in a report to the academy's 23rd annual meeting.

Reason: Residents of crowded areas are widely exposed to polio virus in infancy, and most of them get an intestinal infection that immunizes them against a later paralytic attack on the nervous system.

But Dr. Bodian said that while problems still remain, advances in the understanding of polio and in the conceivable means of vaccinating against it make it "not too optimistic to hope that the result will be the early control of epidemic poliomyelitis."

Oklahoma Replaces Irish as Nation's Best in AP Grid Poll

Wisconsin Takes Over Third Spot

Iowa 4th; Purdue Fifth; Notre Dame Falls to 8th Place

NEW YORK (AP)—Without so much as an offensive huddle last weekend, Oklahoma's Sooners climbed back into the No. 1 spot today in the Associated Press college football poll.

The nation's sports writers and broadcasters brought the Sooners up front again from the runner-up spot after Oklahoma placed its 2-0 record out of reach with an open date Saturday.

Coach Bud Wilkinson's crew, ranked No. 1 in the opening poll, slipped to second last week after Notre Dame's impressive opening victory against Texas. But with Notre Dame knocked off by Purdue 27-14, the ballots again favored the Sooners, who collected 77 of the 153 first-place votes and totaled 1,369 points (10 for first, 9 for second, etc.).

Maryland Out
The Irish were shuffled down to eighth while Purdue made its debut in the top 10 at No. 5 and 22 first place votes.

Maryland, last year's national champ and sixth a week ago, fell out of the top 10 and UCLA, which beat the Terrapins, moved from fourth to second.

Prep Grid Highlights

DeKalb's Miller Scored 4 TD's

SPRINGFIELD, ILL.—(AP)—Highlights of weekend action on down state Illinois high school football fields:

East St. Louis had everything its way after Center Jim Sims and tackle Bob Benton crashed through early in the game and smothered a Bloom punt. Fullback Jack Purdy rumbled across the Bloom goal four plays later and the East St. Louis boys coasted to a 33-0 triumph, their 24th in a row.

Quarterback Don Miller ran for 212 yards in nine carries and counted four touchdowns in DeKalb's 26-0 victory over Hall of Spring Valley.

East Rockford's Dick Lindquist sprinted 97 yards for a touchdown with a kickoff return but East Aurora's powerful club won easily 19-7.

Fullback Les Frith of Dwight boosted his individual pointmaking total to 61 with three touchdowns and a conversion as his team whipped Morris 19-13.

Little Albion pulled one of the season's big surprises in snapping its 11-game loss chain with a 12-7 conquest over a bigger Mount Vernon outfit. Quarterback Eugene Sams, a 146-pounder, scored the winning touchdown with less than a minute to go in the game.

Rock Island salvaged a tie with a fourth quarter rally against Clinton, Iowa. Fullback Ray Findlay capped a 63-yard last period march with a touchdown plunge that meant a 20-20 standoff. For Rock Island, however, the outcome ended a chain of 23 straight wins.

Brady or Heckman May Start

Max Akerman May Be Ready to Go In Friday Game

Jerry Brady or Mel Heckman will probably get the call to fill the shoes of Dixon's regular right halfback, John Perry Friday when the Dukes travel to Ottawa for their second North Central Illinois conference game.

Perry, injured in the Sterling game last week, is out with a bruise and at last report from the doctor, a possible shoulder separation.

Even if there is no separation, Perry probably won't start, Coach Don Barnhart reported this morning. The bruise is very tender and will probably keep Perry out of action for a week anyway.

Heckman, who has turned in several good performances as a defensive linebacker, will be trying out for his third starting position, now. He began the season as an end, moved to fullback when Don Spotts vacated that position after the first game and now is listed as a halfback.

Light Workout
Brady has been understudy to both Perry and Kay Draper all season. He saw considerable action last year after Draper was injured in the first game of the season.

Barnhart reported that he expected Max Akerman to get clearance from his doctor to play Friday which would help alleviate the thinning backfield situation.

Akerman can play either fullback or quarterback and probably could fill in at halfback.

A light workout was the order of the day for the Dukes yesterday. Movies of the Sterling-Dixon game were shown as part of the session.

Show Improvement
The team spirit is good, Barnhart reported, as the Dukes still look for their first victory of the season. Dixon's opponent, Ottawa, will field virtually the same team it had last year when the Pirates gained a 12-7 win over Dixon with a touchdown in the last second of the first half.

Today, Barnhart plans to put the Dukes through a tougher workout, brushing up on the weak points, blocking, passing and pass defense.

Each week the team has shown improvement, Barnhart said, and he hopes the Dukes can get up enough to hit the victory trail Friday.

Perez, Ward Score Wins

NEW YORK (AP)—Lulu Perez, 21-year-old fancy dan from Brooklyn, cast aside his No. 5 ranking among the featherweights after defeating Bobby Woods, the baby-faced lightweight from Spokane, in a Eastern Parkway arena Monday night. It was his second victory in the heavier division.

Next on Lulu's agenda is a Nov. 26 meeting in Madison Square Garden with Frankie Ryff, unbeaten and ninth-ranking lightweight contender.

Lulu weighed 133½ Monday night in winning a 10-round unanimous decision over the 132-pound Woods.

In the other network television bout of the night, Moses Ward, hard-hitting Detroit middleweight, felled Billy Kilgore twice en route to a unanimous 10-round decision at the St. Nicholas Arena.

The triumph earned the strong Negro a Nov. 1 bout with Bobby Jones of Oakland, Calif., at St. Nick's.

A 1-3 favorite like Perez, Ward weighed 160½ to Kilgore's 165½.

Name Furgol

CHICAGO (AP)—Ed Furgol, National Open golf champion, and three other top-ranking professionals have been named as United States team members for a month long series of matches in Australia. The games will start Oct. 13.

Badgers This Year May Be Best for Williamson

Ameche Has Average of Nearly 100 Yards a Game

MADISON, Wis.—(AP)—Take a smashing fullback who has gained an average of nearly 100 yards in every game he's played, add a strong line, throw in two smart topnotch quarterbacks.

That's the University of Wisconsin Badgers, ranked the third best football team in the nation in this week's Associated Press poll.

The fullback of course is Alan (The Horse) Ameche, a six foot, 210 pound charger who has picked up 2,928 yards in 30 games. Saturday The Horse ripped off 127 yards in 17 carries against Rose Bowl champion Michigan State—16 times more yardage than the entire Spartan backfield could gain. He went 28 yards for the game's only touchdown and the victory that boosted the Badgers up two notches in the national spotlight.

Ameche, 21-year-old senior, has scored 18 touchdowns at Wisconsin and was the Big Ten's top ground gainer his first two years. He set a Wisconsin rushing mark of 946 yards in his sophomore year.

End Ron Looklin was the stand-out in the Badger line that wrecked the Spartan ground game, yielding only eight yards. But the MSC backs didn't have a much easier time getting past center Gary Messner, tackles Bob Kornyak and John Dietrich, guard Norm Amundson or end Jim Temp.

While most coaches will settle for one good quarterback, Wisconsin has two — Jim Miller, top passer in the Big Ten last year, and Jim Haluska, the Badgers' 1952 Rose Bowl quarterback who was out last season because of a broken leg. Both men played smart ball against Michigan State.

Antonelli Posts Top ERA Mark

NEW YORK (AP)—Southpaw Johnny Antonelli posted the lowest earned run average among major league pitchers while producing 21 victories and six shutouts for the New York Giants during the regular 1954 season.

Antonelli, who had his talented left hand in two of the Giants' World Series triumphs over Cleveland, permitted 66 earned runs in 259 innings for a sparkling 2.29 earned run mark, statistics compiled by The Associated Press disclosed today.

Mike Garcia of the Indians, a 19-game winner, captured the American League title with a 2.64 average, barely edging Chicago's Sandy Consuegra, who finished with 2.67.

Garcia gave up 76 earned runs in 259 innings and Consuegra, with a 16-3 won-lost record, allowed 46 in 155.

A pitcher must work at least 154 innings to be considered for the crown.

32 Qualify for Match Play Event

CHICAGO (AP)—Thirty-two qualifiers will begin man-to-man competition today in the Illinois PGA Match Play Tournament.

Jimmy Hines of North Shore, led Monday's qualifiers with a seven-under-par 65. He was closely followed by Darrel Hickok of Joliet. Hickok came in with a 67.

Others to break par 72 on the Westmoreland course were Felice Torza and Johnny Revolta, both with 70s, and Ernie Ball of Oak Park and George Keyes of Old Elm 71s.

Besides Hickok, the only non-Chicago area qualifier was Pat Patton of Moline.

Hickok will go against Harry Pezzullo today and Patton is matched against Pat. Pezzullo qualified with a 74.

U. S. Netmen Beat Mexico; Face Tough Sweden Next

MEXICO CITY—(AP)—The United States Davis Cup players have eliminated Mexico, but they'll need to play better tennis to get past Sweden and into the challenge round against Australia.

The inter-zone finals will be played at Brisbane Dec. 17-19. The winners meet the Aussies for the coveted international trophy Dec. 29-31 at Sydney.

Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, U.S. singles champion, and Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, 1953 national titleholder, combined to defeat Mexico 4-1 in the North American zone finals.

Seixas, far off his game when he lost to veteran Gustavo Palacios Saturday, clinched the series Monday with a 6-4, 2-6, 6-3, 6-2 triumph over the little 21-year-old Mexican railway clerk, Mario Llamas.

Trabert, who defeated Llamas in straight sets and teamed with Seixas to take the doubles Sunday, had trouble with Palacios Monday before winning 14-12, 6-1, 6-2.

49ers Accuse Pro Rams of 'Dirty Football'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Tony Morabito, owner of the San Francisco 49ers, accuses Los Angeles professional Rams of "dirty football" and warns:

"If that's the kind of football they want, that's what they'll get."

Morabito spoke out following Sunday's dramatic 24-24 tie between the two clubs in Los Angeles—and with three key 49ers injured, two so severely they may be out for the season.

Ram Coach Hampton Pool vigorously denied Morabito's charges. He told the Southern California Football Writers Assn. Monday:

"I didn't see anything bordering on dirty football. I think Morabito's statement was due to his strong disappointment over the tie."

Morabito and 49er Captain Bruno Banducci took a much different view, however.

"I never saw a dirtier bunch of guys in my life," said Banducci. The two teams meet in San Francisco Nov. 7.

Meek Takes New Tack in His Senatorial Campaign

Takes Hint of Housewife For a 'Positive' Approach

CARLINVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Joseph T. Meek and his wife, Margaret, coffee-clattered Tuesday in their campaign for his election to the U.S. Senate.

Meek, the Republican opponent of Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) in the November election, attended the first of a series of "Meek Coffee Hours" throughout the state, this one at the home of the wife of a Carlville glove manufacturer.

His wife represented him at nine such coffee hour meetings in Chicago.

Meek got a tip from Mrs. Charles Ashworth, wife of a Carlville banker, and he accepted it.

Said Mrs. Ashworth: "I think you should hit the positive things of the Eisenhower administration more, instead of taking the negative approach of criticizing your opponent so much."

Meek agreed she had a "justifiable criticism" and said that from now on he would campaign almost entirely on the Eisenhower administration's accomplishments.

In answer to question fired at him, Meek said: "I think all of us believe that some of McCarthy's (Sen. McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican) actions may not be exactly proper at times, but I also believe that all of us must support the objectives of his committee of exposing Communists."

"I don't think I could discuss specific issues of foreign policy" because I don't believe any candidate should embarrass President Eisenhower when he is dealing with the delicate issues of foreign relations.

"However, I can truthfully say that I will support President Eisenhower on his foreign policy."

Double Trouble

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Rodney Ross Houston, en route to Fort Campbell, had an accident at a detour on U. S. 41. A wrecker retrieved his slightly damaged car and Houston made it to Fort Campbell.

On the return trip Houston again wrecked his car on the detour. He escaped with minor bruises but the car was seriously damaged.

Plan March On Capital For McCarthy

BALTIMORE (AP)—The head of two militant anti-Communist organizations has announced here that a nationwide "march on Washington" asking senators not to censure Sen. McCarthy will be staged Nov. 11.

Rabbi Benjamin Schultz, in Baltimore to be toastmaster tonight of a dinner honoring Roy M. Cohn, former McCarthy aide and a central figure in the McCarthy-Army hearings last spring, made the announcement.

The Senate is scheduled to reconvene Nov. 8 to begin consideration of a special committee recommendation that McCarthy be censured.

Rabbi Schultz said the march will be a "people's movement" especially for Sen. McCarthy, who is being smeared.

He said the marchers would be urged to visit their home-state senators during the day to urge them to reject the censure recommendations, then to attend a mass meeting at a downtown hotel ballroom the night of Nov. 11.

The meeting's purpose would be the organization of a "Joint Council Against Communism in America." The council objective would be not only to fight communism but also to fight "aggressive smears of anti-Communists," Rabbi Schultz said.

Rabbi Schultz is national director of the American Jewish League against Communism, Inc., and coordinator of the Joint Committee Against Communism in New York.

Key Problem

PORT HURON, Mich. (AP)—After St. Clair County built a new escape-proof jail, Sheriff Ferris E. Lucas refused to accept the keys.

Lucas is insisting new locks must be installed. He says master keys to the building were distributed too freely to custodians, workmen and others who helped build the new jail.

Fingerprinting as a method of identifying criminals was not adopted until the 1800s.
